Epilogue

The opera 'Sir John in Love' was first produced at the Royal College of Music in 1929. This arrangement by the composer takes its text from Shakespeare's 'Merry Wives of Windsor' and other contemporary writers. The Drinking Song was written by John Still, bishop of Bath and Wells, and the words of the Epilogue are from Campion and Rosseter's Book of Ayres.

HYMN O COME, ALL YE FAITHFUL
No. 26 on sheet

vv. 1, 2, 3, 5 (Choir only) & 6
(choir p. 222)

1. Of the Father's heart Begotten,
Ere the world from chaos rose,
He is Alpha; from that fountain
All that is and hath been flows;
He is Omega, of all things
Yet to come the mystic Close,
Evermore and evermore.
2. By his word was all created;
He commanded and 'twas done;
Earth and sky and boundless ocean,
Universe of three in one,
All that sees the moon's soft radiance,
All that breathes beneath the sun,
3. He assumed this mortal body,
Frail and feeble, doomed to die,
That the race from dust created
Might not perish utterly,
Which the dreadful Law had sentenced
In the depths of hell to lie,
4. O how blest that wondrous birthday,
When the maid the curse retrieved,
Brought to birth mankind's salvation,
By the Holy Ghost conceived;
And the Babe, the world's Redeemer,
In her loving arms received,
5. This is he, whom seer and sybil
Sang in ages long gone by;
This is he of old revealed
In the page of prophecy;
Lo! he comes, the promised Saviour;
Let the world his praises cry!
6. Sing, ye heights of heaven, his praises;
Angels and Archangels, sing!
Wheresoe'er ye be, ye faithful,
Let your joyous anthems ring,
Every tongue his name confessing,
Countless voices answering,

(Hymn 613)
